

CONTENTS

Foreword -1	i
Foreword -2	ii
Preface	iii
Acknowledgments	iv
Abbreviations	v
Executive Summary	vi
1. Introduction	1
2. Purpose and objectives	2
3. Methodology	4
4. Motorization and transportation growth	4
4.1. Road infrastructure development	9
4.2. Transportation patterns	10
5. Burden of injuries	13
6. Public health burden of Road Traffic Injuries & Deaths	16
6.1. National scenario	17
6.2. Hospital based studies	20
6.3. Population based surveys	22
6.4. Under reporting of RTIs	22
6.5. Future trends	25
6.6. Disabilities and RTIs	26
6.7. Impact of RTIs	27
7. Socio-demographic correlates	30
8. Injury patterns and outcome	36
9. Causes of RTIs	40
10. Current status of RTI prevention and control in India	49
11. Global experience and lessons learnt	52
11.1. Educational approaches	56
11.2. Enforcement approaches	57
11.3. Environment modification approaches	59
11.4. Emergency and Trauma care	59

12.	Interventions ... towards reducing RTIs	63
12.1.	Safer vehicles	63
12.2.	Road and environment safety	64
12.3.	Legislation and enforcement programs	65
12.4.	Improvements in prehospital care	67
12.5.	Trauma care in hospital settings	72
12.6.	Rehabilitation services	73
13.	An Intersectoral Approach	74
14.	Road Safety policies and programmes: A systems and public health approach	79
15.	Moving forward with strategic approaches	81

Annexures

Figure-1a:	Changing Motorisation pattern in selected states
Figure-1b:	Changing Motorisation pattern in selected cities
Figure-2a:	Distribution of vehicles in select states of India
Figure-2b:	Distribution of vehicles in select cities of India
Figure-2c:	Trends of RTI deaths in select states
Figure-2d:	Trends of RTI deaths in select cities
Table-1:	Statewise distribution of RTIs in India
Table-2:	Citywise distribution of RTIs in India
Table-3:	Burden of RTIs in population based surveys
Table-4, 5 & 6:	Estimates of RTIs 2000-2015
Table-7 :	Factors associated with RTIs occurrence in India
Table-8:	Advantages and disadvantages of different information sources
	Draft National Road Safety Policy
	WHO Collaborating Centres for Injury and Violence Prevention